No Signs in the Right-Of-Way!

Signs are not allowed to be placed on city road right-of-way under state law (Minn. Stat. 160.2715). City right-of-way includes public streets, bridges, medians, bike lanes, sidewalks boulevards and trails. In most cases where sidewalks are present, city right-of-way extends to at least the edge of the sidewalk closest to private property.

Unlawfully placed signs on city right-of-way will be removed and held at the Public Works Building.

The Public Works Building is located at 382 Main Street South.
Pick up may be coordinated by calling 507-273-9597.

Fire Prevention Week is October 9-15, 2022!
