EMS Strong: National EMS Week is May 21-27, 2017. A key aspect to a community being livable is the quality of its healthcare, especially in an emergency situation. The dedicated volunteers of the Chatfield Ambulance Service are ready for your call. Be looking for special events to take place EMS week. Two fully stocked trucks are staffed by 26 exceptional people who train for any type of emergency; Medical or Trauma. Your Police Officers are trained as well, and will respond to assist the EMTs. Many of the Firefighters are also cross trained. Chatfield is indeed fortunate to have these people willing to respond 24 hours each and every day. Thank an EMT today!
